INJUNCTION GRANTED AGAINST GUARDSMEN

Election Officials Plan To Open Polls All Over Oklahoma

Walton Calls For 22,000 Special Men To Prevent Voting

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 1.—Preparations are under way by election officials to hold the election tomorrow, which the attorney general declared would be valid.

Ballots have been printed and county officials instructed to do their duty according to law. Governor Walton at the same time has ordered polls padlocked and advised election officials against attempting to hold the referendum.

Twenty-two thousand special police officers have been mobilized.

The situation is alarming and bloodshed may result as neither side shows signs of backing down.

The Governor said that mobilizing men for the entire Oklahoma National Guard, numbering approximately 5,000 men, had been issued Sunday and that 75,000 volunteer militiamen will be called to designated strategic centers for an emergency. He declined to reveal details of the mobilization plans.

Secret Service Men Busy

In addition the executive said that he had instructed his special corps of secret service operatives, which he said numbered 22,000 men, to assist the regular county authorities to keep the polls closed.

Meanwhile, plans directed by W. D. Miller, member of the State House of Representatives, and other legislative opponents of the executive, went forward rapidly to insure an attempt by the public to vote.

The Measures

The measures to be voted on in the special election are:

A $55,000,000 military bonus.

An amendment for refunding depositors in defunct State banks.

An amendment to provide workmen's compensation for death (now limited to injury).

An amendment removing constitutional limitations barring women from office.

An amendment insuring school districts an increase of $15 for every child in daily average attendance.

The court action to test the legality of the election was brought by Attorney General Shott at the direction of Governor Walton. The governor acted at the request of American Legion officials interested in the bonus proposal.

Officers Retired

Belief that the martial law regime in the State is to be lifted or modified soon grew Sunday when it became known that orders had been issued to Colonel W. S. Key, military commander of Oklahoma county, and Colonel J. B. Slusher, attached to the local military headquarters relieving them from duty. No assignment has been made for successors, it was understood.

Adjutant General B. H. Markham has relieved from duty and returned on day leave, late Sunday in orders issued by Governor Walton.

The orders set out that the adjutant general's physician had instructed him to rest in the interest of his health.

Brigadier General Chas. E. McPherson, or Durant, was named acting adjutant general in charge of troops on duty during the absence of General Markham.

FEVERISH ACTIVITY

Tulsa printers received orders Sunday to print 30,000 ballots for Tulsa and 100,000 for adjoining counties. This was done following receipt by Secretary John Smiley of the county election commission of a general delivery letter from W. C. McAllister, Secretary of State election board at Oklahoma City.

This letter was mailed from Oklahoma City early Tuesday morning.

The county election machinery, embracing 107 precincts will be ready by 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, Mrs. Hattner, assistant to Secretary Smiley, declared. The ballots will be ready for distribution by Monday noon, it was learned at printing establishments which suddenly threw off the Sunday quiet at noon to prepare the voting slips. Pressmen and printers were hurriedly called from the ball game, parks, and automobile jaunts to their workrooms and by nightfall the thunder of high-speed presses roared defiance of Gov. J. C. Walton's proclamation, still not a day old, postponing the election.

Sunday afternoon at election headquarters officials were busy reorganizing the county polling machinery which has been inactive since the State road bonds election several months ago. Clerks and judges in every precinct were ordered to prepare for balloting Tuesday and in numerous localities near premises were rented for the polling places.

There was feverish activity throughout the city and county as leaders of various factions strove for advantage in the naming of inspectors and clerks of election.

The registration of the last general election will stand for Tuesday, the County Commission announced.

EXTRAS WILL BE

ISSUED WHENEVER

STORIES WARRANT

Throughout the critical Martial Law period in Oklahoma, The Mexia Daily News will keep the public posted constantly of any notable changes or incidents that may take place there.

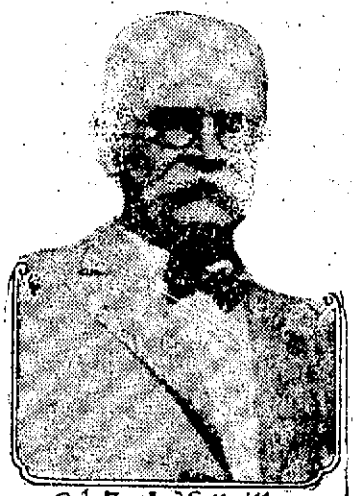

Through The United Press, this newspaper is protected constantly and events worthy of extra editions will be told in such extras.

All advertisers are urged, during this crisis, to be diligent in getting their copy in early, as that will insure them space in any morning extras that might be issued Tuesday or any day thereafter.

This is the beautiful State Capitol of Oklahoma, in Oklahoma City, where the State Legislature was prevented from assembling by the military under orders from Governor J. C. Walton, when they tried to assemble to impeach him for his actions in his war on the Ku Klux Klan. D. A. Stovall, a prominent member of the Legislature, was the leading spirit in the Committee of Three which issued the call for the special session. Buck Garrett, picturesque fighting plainsman and former partner of Bud Bellew, famous Oklahoma sheriff and two gun man, who was killed some time ago, is in command of 20 desperate men, who form a personal bodyguard for Governor Walton.

Flood Strikes

Woodward, Okla.

Sunday Night

WOODWARD, Okla., Oct. 1.—Business streets were flooded and considerable damage was done by a severe wind and hail storm which swept this section during the night. Three inches of hail fell. Train and wire communication is at a standstill.

The Senior R. Y. P. U. is doing wonderful work. You are always welcome to attend Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock.

Nearly 300 New Members Added At Tent Revival

The three weeks revival held by the Garrison Carroll evangelist party, conducted here under a big tent, came to a close last night. The meeting resulted in the addition of 238 members to the First Baptist church and possibly fifty others to other local churches of various denominations.

Baptismal services will take place at the First Baptist church tonight. The evangelists will remain over until Tuesday.

The Sunday services were the greatest of the revival, there being a larger attendance than ever and a score or more additions. Fully 2500 assembled last night to hear the last great sermon brought to Mexico by Dr. Garrison. He delivered a powerful appeal centered around the general theme of "Procrastination" which he described as the bed of ease on which many lie down to sleep forever.

Non Stop Flight Starts from St. Louis At 7 a. m.

LAKEHURST, N. J., Oct. 1.—The Navy dirigible ZR-1 left for St. Louis at 7 this morning on a non-stop flight. The crew is composed of 42 men on the flight. If weather is favorable the ship is expected to arrive at St. Louis tomorrow morning between 7 and 9 o'clock.

Portugal's Former King Doesn't Seem Worried.

Ex-King Manuel of Portugal, whose royal crown was kicked from his kingly head by the twinkling toes of Gaby Deslys, when his people learned of his infatuation for the French dancer and overthrew his regime, doesn't seem morose over the incident. The ex-king, dressed up like an American chorus man, was snapped at the wedding of Princess Isabelle d'Orleans, daughter of the French Pretender, to the Count Bruno d'Harcourt, in Paris.

Nine Cent Gas Dallas Has It

DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 1.—Gasoline is selling at 9 cents a gallon at several independent filling stations. The Magnolia, Gulf, and Humble Companies are still selling at 10 cents, while others are selling at 13 cents.

Decree Would Prohibit Interference at Elections

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 1.—District Judge Hunt granted an injunction against all National Guard officers and men, prohibiting them from interfering in any way with the special election tomorrow.

Sheriff Sanford said there would be one thousand deputies sworn in before night to prevent the polls being closed by Walton's civilian army.

Twelve of the governor's alleged gunmen are guarding the election supplies and storm clouds are rapidly gathering, authorities said.

Sanford announced that the military authorities had agreed to work under his orders, which is understood to mean that the soldiers would prevent any interference with the election.

The military refused to comment.

SAPULPA PREPARES TO VOTE

SAPULPA, Okla., Oct. 1.—Any attempt to intimidate voters or to interfere with the election in Creek county will result in immediate and drastic action, county officials declared. Any one creating a disturbance at the polls will be arrested and taken to jail without ceremony.

French Troops Patrol Dusseldorf Following Riot; Situation Alarm

BERLIN, Oct. 1.—French troops are patrolling Dusseldorf following fatal riots in which several persons were killed and wounded in fighting between German police and separatist demonstrators. The dead is estimated at sixteen and wounded between 50 and 100. The French arrested a number of Germans charged with inciting the riots. Machine guns were used to break up the separatist gathering.

Many women and children were trampled. While the fighting was at its height, French troops surrounded the crowd and forced German police to barracks.

The situation is most alarming.

Labor Sounds Its Battle Cry

Walton Removed Two Members Of Election Board But State Secretary Fails To Approved

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 1.—Governor Jack Walton's latest move today to halt the elections called by the Election Board for Tuesday was, when he ordered the removal from the election board J. F. Logan and T. M. Kelly, replacing them with two men whom he knew were to be with him in his views and intentions of preventing the polls from being opened.

The members he named to take their place were Ira Mitchell and Claude Baker. They comprise two-thirds of the board. The Governor then announced that they had called off the election.

Secretary of State Sneed, however, refused to accept the order appointing Baker and Mitchell and the officers of the election board said no meeting had been held. Mr. McAllister, Secretary of the Board was not removed by the Governor. He was elected by the State Senate to that position and the other two members were appointed by the Governor.

The situation is becoming most alarming. Newspapers continue printing extras notifying the public of the latest move, which causes a different status of affairs every few hours.

Signally successful in some of the early moves, the Governor is now faced with a condition which he declares will provoke bloodshed. He stated Sunday that there may be bloodshed but there would be no election.

Relations and the Colorado Industrial

By H. E. SWISHER

United Press Staff Correspondent
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 1.—A call to "all who have eyes to see" to join the "great crusade for industrial democracy" was sounded today by the Federation's executive council in submitting its report to labor's annual convention here.

"Henceforth the organization of the workers must mean an enlightened participation in a democracy of industry whose purpose must be the extension of freedom, the enfranchisement of the producer as such, the rescue of industry from chaos, profiteering and purely individual whim, and from the domination of incompetent 'political' bodies," said the council.

"The threat of State invasion of industrial life is real. Such ignorant encroachments as the Esch-Cummings act, the Kansas Court of Industrial Commission act, each a blundering gesture of Government acting under the spur of organized propaganda or of political appetite for power, are examples of what industry has to fear. Trade unionism must lead the way for true progress, even at the cost of being branded as reactionary.

"Industry must organize to govern itself, to impose upon itself rules and to bring order into its own house. Industry must bring order to itself constructively, or it will have an order thrust upon it which would be demoralizing, if not fatal. Our people cannot live and thrive under the regime of bureaucracy which threatens unless industry solves its own problems. Industry must find itself. Industry must save itself."

For The Farmer
To the farmers of the country the council suggested that "agriculture, the great life-giving twin of industry,

CHAIRMAN DURBIN'S HISTORY OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Mr. W. W. Durbin, Chairman of the Democratic States Executive Committee, of Ohio, has produced a piece of valuable political literature in a pamphlet entitled "A History of the Origin, Principles and Purposes of the Democratic Party."

Among historical facts he makes clear the plan of the Constitution of the United States which was adopted was proposed by James Madison, a Democrat, the first lieutenant of Thomas Jefferson, known to his generation as the Father of the Constitution.

That it was basely false that Jefferson was against the Constitution, his original objection to it being remedied by the addition of the Bill of Rights comprised in the first amendment.

That "government of the people, by the people, for the people," began in 1801 under Thomas Jefferson.

That the most recent biographies of Abraham Lincoln—one by Jesse Weik and one by Prof. Stephen—contain that statement that the only two men Lincoln was ever heard to praise were George Washington and Thomas Jefferson.

Among some of the great constructive acts of the Democratic party he sets forth the following:

The Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

The Acquisition of Louisiana, Florida and California.

The Monroe Doctrine.

Opening of public lands to settlers.

Pioneered a fight for an income tax.

The popular election of Senators.

The creation of the Federal Reserve System, the greatest piece of financial legislation in the history of the world.

Gave the farmers the Rural Credits Act (the most helpful financial legislation ever enacted for agriculture).

Gave labor the Magna Carta of its rights.

Passed the first national act to end child slavery.

Under a Democratic administration, directed with brilliant success, the greatest war in history and gave the world an international plan for peace.

Mr. Durbin has compressed a great deal of Democratic party history into small space and has done it attractively and convincingly.

Practically all of the great constructive policies of the nation, have emanated from the Democratic Party.

For the first time a defendant in Chicago has been brought to trial on the charge of selling baseball pools. The strength of the gambling interest is indicated by this delayed success on the part of baseball interests which realize that the sport must perish unless it repulses the assaults of the gamblers.

ENGLISH "SOCIALISTS" FAVOR PREPAREDNESS

By International News Service LONDON, Oct. 1.—England has a Socialistic organization that is not altogether and unalterably opposed to armies.

The Social Democratic Federation has pronounced itself against:

"Negative pacifism and sentimental drift."

And in favor of:

"Conscription."

"A democratic army for national defense."

"State production of armaments."

George Moore Bell one of the leaders of the organization, says that while they "are not jingoes, they are not prepared to see their constitutional heritage, through which they hope to evolve a true social democracy, thrown away and subjected to the dominance of some autocrat of Europe."

Higgins; the Real Thing, Says Farrell

By HENRY L. FARRELL United Press Sports Editor NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—In winning his third straight American League pennant with the New York Yankees, Miller Huggins, the little manager of the team, accomplished something that should rate for him a place among the real managerial leaders of baseball.

Huggins never has been able to get the credit that he deserved for meritorious performances in the past, largely because he did not seek glory or the spotlight, and even now, when any other manager would be acclaimed for taking three pennants in succession, the little Yank boss is still being panned.

New York never has taken to Huggins and the comment is still being heard that "anyone ought to win a flock of pennants with a million dollar team and that the Yankees won the pennant again this year, not because of their manager, but in spite of him."

Huggins lacks the spectacular color of McGraw, he is not a mixer like Uncle Wilbert Robinson, he is not as picturesque as Kid Gleason and he lacks the outward qualities of leadership that are embodied in Frank Chance. He seldom deserts the darkness of the dugout and he goes about his way quietly and gets results.

The Yankee manager has shown no great ability as a developer of young players since he took the New York club, although he has had a part in making Ward and Meusel. But in his position no other manager would care to saddle himself with the responsibilities and gamble with young players. Developing youngsters is a big problem. Connie Mack has failed at it for seven years, and Mack had a great reputation for bringing along young players.

When Huggins was given the Yankees he was commissioned to get a winner and something to "compete" against the Giants as an attraction. Had Huggins been the greatest miracle man in the world in developing young players, he could not have gotten together a pennant winning team in the short space of time demanded by his employers.

He found himself in a fortunate position where the owners were willing and able to buy the players that Huggins decided would work well with his combination.

Huggins at least did show some real good judgment in buying players. No other great stars that Huggins let go can be found on other teams like the castoffs of the Giants in the National League. The players that Huggins disposed of never caused him a regret while those he acquired delivered for him better than they were expected to do.

The smartest move made by Huggins was his recommendation for the purchase of Babe Ruth. The great Swat King proved a very profitable investment for the club owners after they were accused of being crazy by rival club owners for paying such a huge sum of money for the Babe.

The craftiness of the little manager was also shown last winter when he secured Herb Pennock from the Boston Red Sox. His critics said he was foolish to dispose of young Murray, a promising pitcher; McMillan, a young infielder, and other players in the deal but those players failed to make good with the Red Sox, and Pennock who had been regarded as through, turned out in his new uniform to be one of the best pitchers in the league.

Even with a million dollars behind him and the permission to buy and sell as the manager sees fit, it is not a cinch to go out and make no mistakes on the market.

Huggins has made few mistakes in his investments.

NO PEACHES SOLD ON SUNDAY

By International News Service NASHVILLE, Ind., Oct. 1.—John Dobbs has a fine peach crop. Motorists who drive by the Dobbs farm in large numbers on Sunday are tempted by the luscious peaches and attempt to make purchases. But Dobbs is not tempted.

"No, sir," he says. "I won't sell peaches or anything else on Sunday for all the money in the world. There are not enough automobiles in the world to haul money enough to get me to sell peaches on Sunday. It would be wrong: If all my orchard was piled as high as I could see with money I wouldn't sell a peach on Sunday. I wouldn't barter my soul for gold."

DILATED EYE IS GLASS; NOT FROM INTOXICATION

By International News Service LONDON, Oct. 1.—A London police surgeon, Dr. McKeag, has just testified that a man was drunk on the ground that "his eye was dilated."

But it never occurred to him that the eye might be a glass one.

In point of fact, it was. Accordingly Police Magistrate Lankester refused to accept the doctor's opinion that one Stanley Watson was drunk while driving an automobile, and what looked a black case turned out to be an acquittal.

Mrs. Roy Johansen and son, Roy Jr., and her sister, Miss Juanita Pressley returned Friday from Corsicana from a weeks visit with relatives.

Kyle Stewart and Luther Vickors left Saturday night for Hillsboro to spend the week-end.

Winn Higgins and June Suttle motored over to Teague Sunday.

People with the Sells-Floto circus will tell you that grand opera stars have nerve—at least, the big top troupers will aver that Cyrena Van Gordon, soprano of the Chicago Grand Opera Company, has plenty.

In Chicago, where Sells-Floto, coming to Mexia for parade and exhibit Friday, October 6th, opens its seasons, Syrena taxied from a rehearsal at the Auditorium to the Coliseum, and walked unperturbed into a den of lions, where she serenaded them with her marvelous voice. Talk about "music hath charms to sooth the savage beast!" Miss Gordon proved that in a hurry.

But the soprano was not entirely alone. Chris Zeits, trainer, stood right behind her, steel-pronged fork ready, in case anything might have gone wrong, and behind Chris was an unlocked door. Still, do you think you would care to try it?

The lions, you will note, are magnificent specimens, as are all of the wild creatures in the big Sells-Floto menagerie, but this you will see for yourself, when the largest street parade in the world invades the business district of the city on Sells-Floto circus day.

HICKMAN'S

"The Children's and Ladies' Store"

Of course, it's just like a clown, even a producing clown like Borello, to try to fit a midget pony with a draft horse show. Naturally, Bee Starr, dainty aerial artist, looking on objects, but clowns have to work things out in their own way, and Borello will reach a solution highly absurd in proper time.

With the Sells-Floto circus, coming to Mexia to parade and exhibit Friday, October 5th, there are over forty clowns, who work with the ponies, donkeys, burros, dogs of low and high degree, geese, roosters and guinea pigs. These funsters have trained their pets to a remarkable proficiency in comedy, and children the country over chortle at their antics.

As for Miss Starr—well, she is one of the two Flying Ward troupes, big casting troupes of mid-air somersaulters, headed by Mayme and Edward Ward. Sells-Floto has this year a large number of foreign acts, but not in the air. The Wards and the two hundred other aerialists with the big show are all Americans, for the land of Uncle Sam leads the world in daring, graceful and magnificent acts aloft.

FRUIT GETS TWO YEARS SENTENCE

MEXIA, Sept. 29.—J. C. Pruitt, one of the 11 men indicted on charges of violating the prohibition law following the extensive raid in Semerville county in August faced a two years sentence in the penitentiary here today. Pruitt was found guilty by a jury yesterday afternoon of a charge of illegally manufacturing whiskey.

A second case, involving 12 indictments is pending against Pruitt. Pruitt's case was regarded as a test case for the others to be tried.

Salts Fine For Aching Kidneys

Most of the trouble that the kidneys, like the heart, must get through and through and must be fighting constantly, also we have backache and dull pains in the kidney region, severe headache, rheumatic twinges, neuritis, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean and the only way you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region begin drinking lots of Quaker Puffed Wheat. Also get plenty of Quaker Puffed Rice from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. Then Quaker salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is intended to flush clogged kidneys and help stimulate them to activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so they no longer irritate, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders. Quaker Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well known local druggist says he sells lots of Quaker Salts to folks who believe in trying to cure a kidney trouble while it is only trouble. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—(Adv.)

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tidwell are the proud parents of a nine pound baby boy that arrived Saturday morning.

Miss Jessie Robinson left Sunday for Houston to visit her sister, Mrs. John Montgomery for several months.

Puffed Rice

Airy, flavory morsels—a supreme delight

Quaker Puffed Rice is the finest breakfast dainty people have ever known. The grains are steam exploded—puffed to 8 times normal size so each grain becomes a confection—a flaky, flavory puff.

The food cells are exploded, so they easily digest. That is the reason for puffing. Thus Puffed Grains are the best-cooked cereals in existence.

Whole grains made enticing

Quaker Puffed Wheat is whole wheat puffed. Over 125 million steam explosions are caused in every kernel. Thus these airy, toasted grains become delicious tidbits.

No night dish is more welcome than Quaker Puffed Wheat in milk. And none is more important.

Whole wheat supplies 12 minerals which growing children must have. It supplies the needed bran. And milk is rich in vitamins.

Every housewife wants her family to eat more whole grains and more milk. Then serve them Puffed Grains morning, noon and night.

In the afternoon, crisp and douse with melted butter for children to eat like peanuts.

Millions of people are better fed since Puffed Grains were invented. Let your folks eat them to their hearts' content.

Coolidge Markets 7,725 Bales This Season To Date

Coolidge has received 7,725 bales of cotton already this season. The Coolidge Herald states that "It appears reasonably certain now that Coolidge will receive 9,000 bales of cotton this season. Figuring the total at an average of 25 cents per pound and the seed at $40 per ton the proceeds would be $1,305,000."

The bank deposits at present are the heaviest in the history of that community. In the two banks there, $710,000 is on deposit.

At Prairie Hill the deposits show $56,076.90.

The Farm Bureau is becoming popular in the Coolidge territory, 400 bales have been shipped this year by the Bureau which is a considerable gain over previous seasons.

must find its way through to orderliness and justice by adoption of substantially the same means we advocate for industry. It is our hope that the farmers will continue their work of organization and that we may have and give assistance in pushing forward the program upon which we believe depends our future national well being and safety.

"We commit ourselves to greater efforts in the organization of all workers. We urge no new formula, no new philosophy; we urge only a great consciousness of purpose and a definite aim towards its more rapid accomplishment.

With this prelude, the council proceeded to a report and discussion of the work of the past year, and to make recommendations on several important questions of labor policy. A digest of those follows:

Child Labor.
All local labor bodies were urged to demand Congressional adoption and submission to the States of the proposed amendment to enable anti-child labor laws to be passed.

Supreme Court.
The council repeated its advocacy, in dorse by the 1922 convention, of adoption of a constitutional amendment providing that if the Supreme Court nullifies a law of Congress, it shall remain a law if passed by two-thirds of both houses of Congress.

Attacks on Unionism.
A "propaganda of destructive criticism" has been aimed at the trade union movement, frankly revolutionary and having for its ultimate object not only destruction of trade unionism but the eventual overthrow of the democratic Government of the United States," the council said. The catchword of this propaganda has been "amalgamation," it was stated, referring to those who favor "one big union."

Immigration.
"Congress will be called upon to decide between the greed of unfair employers and the self-preservation of our people," in dealing with the immigration problem, the report said, pointing out "the danger to our institutions if immigration is not restricted to a greater extent than is provided in the present law." The convention was urged to go on record in favor of much stricter limitation, even for complete prohibition of immigration for a time. Americanization program the council said:

"No better time could a campaign to this end be launched than at present, and its success would be made more certain by the complete restriction of immigration."

Unemployment.
The council recommended that the A. F. of L. participate heartily in all efforts being made in a time of prosperity like the present to prepare against an unemployment period. All wage earners were urged to send to headquarters their best thought and suggestion on means of preventing unemployment.

"In addition we have no hesitancy in emphasizing the fact," said the council "that the most potential factor against unemployment is the resistance against wage reductions."

Banking and Credits.
Emphasizing the importance of credit in the industrial life of the nation the council reported adversely on the plan to establish a central labor bank in Washington, D. C., to co-ordinate the activities of labor banks throughout the country. It pointed out that the twenty-three labor banks now in business or about to start are organized on different plans and that it would be impossible to bring them together in a unit. The central bank project is, therefore, "not only impracticable, but undesirable," the council said.

Non-Partisan Political Campaign.
Pointing to the fact that "through the activities of the A. F. of L. Non-Partisan Campaign Committee twenty three candidates for United States Senator who had been loyal to labor and the people were elected, and eleven reactionary Senators defeated, and the 170 House members were elected either because the A. F. of L. supported them or opposed their rivals," the council advocated that the convention provide more funds for similar activities in the 1924 campaign so that "a most thorough campaign can be inaugurated and carried to a successful conclusion."

Kansas Industrial Court.
"Kansas once again is heading toward freedom," as the result of the Supreme Court's decision "dismissing" the Industrial Court, the council said. In view of the decision "the only purpose now being served by the remnants of ex-Governor Allen's law is to provide jobs for his political appointees on this court and to squander the money of the taxpayers of Kansas," Governor Davis was commended for his efforts to abrogate the law entirely.

Open Shop.
The so-called "American plan" or open shop was condemned as an effort to put workers into slavery, and the council declared that "the successful strikes of nearly 2,000,000 wage-earners in the United States are responsible for the prosperity this country is enjoying, since these strikes were adjusted by collective bargaining."

Ku Klux Klan.
The Klan was condemned on the ground that "it is destructive of that freedom and devotion to the principles of liberty which we regard as the first essentials in democratic civilization. We believe that no trade unionist can consistently participate in the activities of the Ku Klux Klan or any similar organization, and we unhesitatingly denounce its efforts to supplant or dered government, to promote religious intolerance, racial antagonisms and bigotry."

Fascisti Movement.
The effort to organize fascisti groups in the United States was denounced as "a token of hostility to our democratic institutions." Foreign-born workers were urged to "refrain from joining the fascisti or any similar movement."

Railroads and The Courts.
An exhaustive review of the shop-

men's strike and the Wilkerson injunction was made. The council declared the injunction "marked a new advance of the courts of equity in their usurpation of power to control industrial controversies," which may provide "a tyrannical precedent in other cases."

The Railroad Labor Board and the Each-Cummins act were roundly condemned and their abrogation urged.

Minimum Wage Law.
Nullification of the District of Columbia minimum wage law for women should stimulate the organization of women, not alone for their own protection, but also for protection of men wage earners the council said.

In a comprehensive review of the work of the Sixty-seventh Congress the council declared it "will find an unenviable place in history. Reaction and incompetence, backed apparently by no other thought than personal and partisan political advantage, made it impotent to remedy any of the evils troubling the people of our country.

One of the greatest dangers to the country, the report said, is legislation

by "lame ducks," or defeated members of Congress.

Mrs. Maurice Adam and two children Antonietta and Maurice Jr. of Corsicana visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Corley for a few days returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips and two children, Betty Nell and Snowball, spent Sunday in Navarro.

"Up, Vanity!" cries Veronica Motono, as the well-schooled Vanity, one of the stars of the newly imported forty-eight horse act from Budapest with Sells-Floto circus, coming to Mexia to parade and exhibit Friday, October 4.

Civilian Aviator Is Forced Down Machine Trouble

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 29.—Parker D. Cramer, civilian aviator, who hopped off here yesterday at dawn in an attempt to make a non-stop flight to Clarion, Pa., was forced down at Hickman, Ky., by a broken water connection, according to word received here today.

Parker had completed approximately half of his scheduled 1225 mile flight when he was forced to descend. It was his fourth attempt at the flight. The first three times he was forced down before he left Houston.

With, shows his pals and the world, for that matter, a thing or two about going up in the air. Still, all is not quite Vanity, for Veronica is not at all hard to look at, even if the horse showing off to advantage.

For many years Sells-Floto has been famous for its handsome equines, and this year it has set out to eclipse the reputation established in the past by importing the show horses of Europe. Hunters from England vie with high jumpers from Italy, and Hungarian and Rumanian steeds try to humble the best that have been culled from horse show centers in North America.

When the world's largest street parade goes by on circus day month, look over the hundreds of horses. It will be worth your while.

Texas Realtors Meeting Today In Houston

HOUSTON, Texas, Oct. 1.—Realtors of Texas gathered in Houston today for the annual meeting of the Texas Association of Real Estate Boards which will end October 5.

Today's program included for the most part registration of delegates and an informal reception for the visitors. Chairman of various committees also will meet today.

The real work of the convention will begin tomorrow with an address by President Wallace Rogers of San Antonio. Reports of state officers, conferences of board secretaries and other business matters will be taken up.

Discussion of the proposed law to license all real estate agents as is being done in numerous other states is the most important question before the realtors. It is in general favor among the delegates who believe it will do away with many fake land farms.

Huge Rattlesnake Punctures Tire

MINERAL WELLS, Texas, Oct. 1

—Earl Tomerlin is the first motorist in this section to report a punctured tire caused by a rattlesnake bite.

While driving along a road near here Tomerlin saw a huge rattler directly in his path. The wheels of the car passed over the snake. When he got out to inspect his kill one of the snake's fangs was missing and his tire was punctured. Tomerlin believes the snake in its death agony, sank one of its fangs into the tire. The rattler measured five feet and two inches in length and was nine inches in diameter.

WOUND AROUND SHAFT BUT ESCAPED DEATH

DENTON, Texas, Oct. 1.—Whipped dizzily around the swiftly revolving shaft of the machinery in a local gin plant, Morris Ford, miraculously escaped instant death. Ford's right arm became wrapped around the shaft while replacing a drive belt. A worker ran the length of the plant and turned the power off. It was impossible to turn the machinery back and Ford's body had to be turned round and round the shaft, until released. He suffered numerous broken bones and bruises.

THIS IS A STUDEBAKER YEAR

Through A Woman's Eyes

By SADIE KIRGAN

I spent one summer on a ranch in New Mexico. At the back of the ranch house was an enormous canyon, possessing a picturesqueness of beauty that fascinated me from the first day that I stood on the dizzying brink. The magnificent rise of the walls, the scarlet flowers in the rocky ledges, the soft purple haze, the few lone pines that kept vigil from above, and the little river that ran over the rocks, blinded me at first, to all but the loveliness of the scene. Then one day I found danger and fear. I learned that a chance nipster of my horse's foot as we came down the steep trail could mean death, swift and terrible. I saw a rattler rise in my path. I learned the treachery of the swimming pool—that the river formed as it went over the falls.

So it has always been with nature. A palace of ice on a sweep of sea and the Titanic lost; a flowering vine, and in its touch, poison; a strange play beneath the waters, and the cherry blossom beauty of Japan in ruin.

Perhaps it is nature's guard, her surest protection for man and his ambition, her way of holding him to ideals and values. Or perhaps, again, as the famous old poem has expressed it:

"Some of us call it nature,
But others call it God."

DR. JACKSON HEADS RECORD-MAKING POWELL 500 COMPANY

In reporting the record dividend payment of the Powell 500 Company Sunday, The News stated that Jesse McLendon was President of the Company. This was an error. Dr. R. B. Jackson, well known physician, Limestone County pioneer, the original baseball fan, and successful oil man, is head of the company. Other dividend payments are expected to be paid in the future and The News promises not to make the same error again, if that is any inducement to further dividend declaration and disbursement.

WHEN I GO HOME

By SADI KIRGAN

A little while—and I shall go back home,
Back to the little place
I call my own,
The roses then, will be in bloom,
Pale faces in the twilight gloom,
The air all rich with sweet perfume,
When I go home.

A mother will be waiting there,
When I go home,
The moonlight playing on her hair,
When I go home,
A child will cry in merry glee,
"We're glad you're come, because you see
This is the loneliest place to be,
When you are gone."

And father dear will smile and say,
When I go home,
"Well, have you had enough of play?"
When I go home,
"And did you want to see us, too,
As we were wanting to see you,
And are you gay, or sad, or blue?"
When I go home.

And I shall simply wait and smile,
When I go home,
And look around the place awhile,
The sweetpeas that have grown quite tall,
The whispering winds when twilight falls,
The whippoorwill's low plaintive call,
When I go home.

O, Little House, awaiting there,
When I go home,
O, Little Nest, with treasures rare,
When I go home,
Though through the world I've traveled wide,
Where wealth and kings and fame abide,
I love you best of all besides,
When I go home.

Paris Style Hints

NECK-LINES

PARIS, Oct. 1.—If there is still some doubt as to the proper position of the waist-line, Paris designers seem to have at least made it clear about the neck-line of the season.

The old bateau-shaped neck opening that has been enjoying such popularity has about disappeared. Only now and then does one spy it in the new collections, and then usually in linen or organdie. The "V" neck seems to be the chosen one. Some of the houses give it definite outlines, others drape it.

Round openings are also very much used, together with small square ones with a rounded back. Lenief is one who favors the round neck cut just at the collar-bone, a style which is becoming to many women and especially to the ill-favored ones with too little flesh covering at this particular point.

On his velvet frocks he puts a narrow border of embroidery or fur and continues it down the side in Russian blouse manner.

The Persian neck is a specialty of one of the smaller houses and is one of the prettiest to be seen. It is round, cut off to a slant on the side, giving a most becoming and youthful finish. Yvonne Davidson uses it on a charming silver-gray silk tunic gown. The neck is bordered with the same fine gold thread embroidery which trims the gown and is finished off with a narrow triple colored tie in green, gray and silver.

Many of Chanel's little crêpe de chine frocks have narrow bands attached to the bodice and standing up across the back of the neck and then brought around and tied loosely in front where the bodice is low. Often the order is reversed and the band ties in the back.

Evening gowns are cut low in the back and high in the front. Many, in fact, have no backs at all, with the material coming straight up to the neck in front.

Famous French Recipes

PEAS WITH BUTTER A LA FRANCAISE.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—You have just time enough, perhaps to have a last feast of fresh green peas before the season ends. Try cooking them with butter a la francaise.

Clean the peas and cook in a casserole with a quarter of a pound of butter for each quart of peas. Stir from time to time with a wooden spoon. Add a little bouquet of parsley, the heart of a young lettuce and eight or ten little onions. Let cook for one hour or less, if the peas are very young. It is wise to cover them with a shallow dish filled with water to keep the peas from drying out. Add a bit of sugar before taking from the fire. Serve hot.

UNJUST RESULTS OF MONEY PLANS

Unsound Currency Gives Sellers Unfair Advantage Over the Producers.

EXPERT EXPLAINS MONEY

Points Out Dangers In So-Called Energy Dollars—Other Plans Exposed.

How demagogues are using false doctrines of so-called "sound money" to give themselves or the class they represent unfair advantages at the expense of real producers is exposed in the Journal of the American Bankers Association by H. Parker Willis, expert on the money question.

"There is no subject in whose name more crimes against truth have been committed than that of 'sound currency,'" Mr. Willis says. "The term is always resorted to by demagogues. At the present moment there seems to be a danger that it will be used by a potential presidential candidate as representing the 'platform' upon which he expects to run. There is no question that more nearly and directly touches the immediate welfare of every class in the community."

Purpose of Money
Primary functions of money and currency, it is explained, are to serve as a means of exchanging goods and as a means of measuring the value of goods. Mr. Willis continues:

"Demagogues and those who are disposed to mislead the public for various ulterior reasons have succeeded in disseminating an entirely different view of the purpose of money. Some of them contend that the soundest or best currency is that which is so arranged as to bring about a 'fair' redistribution of wealth. They want a constantly depreciating currency—one which keeps playing into the hands of the seller of goods by enabling him to count constantly upon higher prices in terms of money so that he pays the producer from whom he has obtained them less and less. IT IS A STRANGE THING THAT THIS KIND OF CURRENCY IS OFTEN HIGHLY PRAISED OR FAVORED BY THE PRODUCER HIMSELF. NOTWITHSTANDING THAT HE IS THE GREATEST SUFFERER FROM IT."

Energy Currency
There is another popular view of sound currency which aims to base it upon "natural products" or "natural forces"—usually it is true, specifying products or forces which have been monopolized or can be controlled by the advocate of such currency. Thus from time to time there have been schemes to issue a currency based upon or protected by farm products stored in warehouses, or occasionally representing "units of energy" or horse power.

The rulers of Soviet Russia at one time attempted to introduce a currency representing "labor time," each man receiving a check representing the number of hours of time he had put in at work, while goods themselves were to be valued in terms of hours of production time. Thus one man who put in an hour's time in street cleaning received the same control over goods as he who put in an hour's time at surgery. The theory was that this kind of "sound" currency enabled the "poor man" to get a larger supply of goods.

"The trouble was that when those who could perform a certain kind of labor were not paid in proportion to their effort they stopped making goods. So it was not very long in Russia before the sound currency which was issued in favor of the poor man had brought it about that the poor man could not buy anything with the currency. This was an unfortunate king of 'soundness.' We do not want something like it in the United States today, yet very similar proposals are now being made in a good many quarters that ought to know better," says Mr. Willis.

FACTS ABOUT CHECKS

A bank check is a written order on a bank by one of its depositors to pay a specified sum to another party. This instrument must be dated, the amount written in full in the body, and signed the same as the depositor's signature appears on the bank signature card and ledger sheet.

A check is payable on demand, and it is not dated ahead of the date ahead it becomes a promise to pay, the same as a note or acceptance, payable on some future date. United States revenue stamps are required on a check dated ahead, at the rate of 2 cents per hundred dollars, or fraction thereof.

In case a check carries two different figures, that is $5.00 in the figures and "Two Hundred Dollars" in the written part of the body of the check, the latter, or part in writing, always controls.

A check made out to a person "as order," requires identification, and the party presenting the same must assure the bank that he is the payee. A check to a person "or bearer" is payable to the one presenting it at the bank, but a certain amount of identification is necessary, for the bank reserves the right to know that he is entitled to receive the funds.

SPECIAL PROSECUTOR NAMED TO CONDUCT INVESTIGATION OF GOV. McCRAV'S AFFAIRS

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 1.—Charles W. Moore, United States Commissioner, has appointed a special prosecutor to conduct the grand jury investigation of the financial affairs of Governor McCray, to start Friday. The republican state committee is to go into every detail of alleged irregularities in the governor's handling of the Marion National Bank, to determine the party's attitude toward the governor. Skopmen said they would see that the governor gets a square deal.

World's Biggest Ball Yards For World's Series

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Played in two new parks, the largest baseball grounds in the world, the championship series between the New York Giants and the New York Yankees is most sure to establish new attendance records for one or two games, if not for the entire series.

The new Yankee stadium, built at 161st Street and River Avenue, in the Bronx, cost more than $2,000,000 and it has seating space for 70,000. It was filled only once this season, on the opening day, but its capacity was about reached for two other Sunday games in mid-season.

The Polo Grounds was remodeled last winter at a cost of over half a million dollars and it is the finest park in the National League. The infield is almost completely surrounded by a double deck grandstand that will hold a seating capacity of 50,000. It is only a small distance from the center field that the new stadium stands.

The Yankees set the previous record when they won the world's series in 1923, when eight games were played, being the shortest series in the history of the game. The attendance did not approach the seating capacity of the Polo Grounds.

It is expected that the series will be followed with bad weather, and the general slump in business may cause the attendance to drop. It is considered almost certain, however, that the two parks will be filled to capacity for the first two or three games and new records are practically sure to be established.

As far as is known the best drilling record in the Powell area of the Greater Mexico oil district was made recently by Campbell and Southern, drilling contractors. They drilled the Humphreys McKie 52 to a depth of 2887 feet in exactly 5 1/2 working days. Every 24 hours 525 feet of hole was made. A rotary was used. F. R. Woods was the day driller and C. A. Lindsey was night driller.

PLANE FIRES TORPEDO WEIGHING 1500 POUNDS

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 1.—A new seaplane capable of firing a torpedo weighing three-quarters of a ton at an excessive speed has recently been put through tests on the Humble river.

The machine is able to travel to its objective at 100 miles an hour and maintain a speed in the air of 100 miles an hour.

A new device on the elevators enables the seaplane to swoop down almost by the water to deliver its torpedo, while its great speed makes it a difficult target for anti-aircraft guns.

TUESDAY'S ELECTION DECLARED LEGAL

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 1.—Attorney General George F. Shott, declared today that a special State Election to be held Tuesday, at which a primary would be voted on to permit the legislature to consider impeachment charges against Gov. J. C. Walton, is legal and that "every qualified voter should quietly and peaceably go to the polls and cast his vote as his conscience may dictate."

Representative W. D. McFee, a leader in the move to initiate more to come and launch an impeachment investigation against the Governor, said:

"The election must be held and I have sent telegrams to members of the House and Senate and other persons to disregard Gov. Walton's tactics of obstruction and go to the polls and vote. Tuesday, notwithstanding any statement or proclamation the chief executive may issue."

State Police an Innovation

Followers of Gov. Walton's administration were surprised at the strength he claimed for his State police. The Governor's police constitute an innovation in the law-enforcement machinery of the State. The police represent an enlargement of a plan which the Governor had in operation while he was Mayor of Oklahoma City immediately before becoming chief executive. At that time he issued hundreds of "courtesy" police cards which extended to holders certain privileges not held by citizens in general. While they did not constitute an actual police commission, political opponents of the executive waged a constant attack on the "courtesy cards" alleging that many persons were using them as authority for bearing arms and that the holder had been subsidized for political purposes.

Upon becoming Governor, Mr. Walton began the issuance of "Special State Police commissions." These commissions were given freely. Opponents of the Governor declare he was building up a political army as well as extending authority to thousands

Election Officials Plan To Open Polls All Over Oklahoma

Walton Calls For 22,000 Special Men To Prevent Voting

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 1.—Preparations are under way by election officials to hold the election tomorrow, which the attorney general declared would be valid.

Ballots have been printed and county officials instructed to do their duty according to law. Governor Walton at the same time has ordered polls padlocked and advised election officials against attempting to hold the referendum.

Twenty two thousand special police officers have been mobilized.

The situation is alarming and bloodshed may result as neither side shows signs of backing down.

The Governor said that mobilization orders for the entire Oklahoma National Guard, numbering approximately 5,000 men, had been issued Sunday and that 75,000 volunteer militiamen will be called to designated strategic centers for an emergency. He declined to reveal details of the mobilization plans.

Secret Service Men Busy

In addition the executive said that he had instructed his special corps of secret service operatives, which he said numbered 22,000 men, to assist the regular county authorities to keep the polls closed.

Meanwhile, plans directed by W. D. McBe, member of the State House of Representatives, and other legislative opponents of the executive, went forward rapidly to insure an attempt by the public to vote.

The Measures

The measures to be voted on in the special election are:
A $55,000,000 soldiers bonus.
An amendment for refunding depositors in defunct State banks.
An amendment to provide workmen's compensation for death (now limited to injury).
An amendment removing constitutional limitations barring women from office.
An amendment insuring school districts an increase of $15 for every child in daily average attendance.

The court action to test the legality of the election was brought by Attorney General Short at the direction of Governor Walton. The governor acted at the request of American Legion officials interested in the bonus proposal.

Officers Retired

Belief that the martial law regime in the State is to be lifted or modified soon grew Sunday when it became known that orders had been issued to Colonel W. S. Key, military commander of Oklahoma county, and Colonel J. B. Sledge, attached to the local military headquarters relieving them from duty. No assignment has been made for successors, it was understood.

Adjutant General B. H. Markham was relieved from duty and granted ten-day leave, late Sunday in orders issued by Governor Walton.

The orders set out that the adjutant general's physician had instructed him to rest in the interest of his health.

Brigadier General Chas. E. McPherson, or Durant, was named acting adjutant general in charge of troops on duty during the absence of General Markham.

FEVERISH ACTIVITY

Tulsa printers received orders Sunday to print 30,000 ballots for Tulsa and 100,000 for adjoining counties. This was done following receipt by Secretary John Smiley of the county election commission of a general delivery letter from W. C. McAllister, Secretary of State election board at Oklahoma City.

This letter was mailed from Oklahoma City early Tuesday morning.

The county election machinery, embracing 107 precincts will be ready by 6 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mrs. Halthorn, assistant to Secretary Smiley, declared. The ballots will be ready for distribution by Monday noon, it was learned at printing establishments which suddenly threw off the Sunday quit at noon to prepare the voting slips. Pressmen and printers were hurriedly called from the ball game, parks, and automobile jaunts to their workrooms and by nightfall the thunder of high-speed presses roared defiance of Gov. J. C. Walton's proclamation, still not a day old, postponing the election.

Sunday afternoon at election headquarters officials were busy reorganizing the county polling machinery which has been inoperative since the State road bonds election several months ago. Clerks and judges in every precinct were ordered to prepare for balloting Tuesday and in numerous localities near premises were rented for the polling places.

There was feverish activity throughout the city and county as leaders of various factions strove for advantage in the naming of inspectors and clerks of election.

The registration of the last general election will stand for Tuesday, the County Commission announced.

EXTRAS WILL BE ISSUED WHENEVER STORIES WARRANT

Throughout the critical Martial Law period in Oklahoma, The Mexia Daily News will keep the public posted constantly of any notable changes or incidents that may take place there.

Through The United Press, this newspaper is protected constantly and events worthy of extra editions will be told in such extras.

All advertisers are urged, during this crisis, to be diligent in getting their copy in early, as that will insure them space in any morning extras that might be issued Tuesday or any day thereafter.

This is the beautiful State Capitol of Oklahoma, in Oklahoma City, where the State Legislature was prevented from assembling by the military under orders from Governor J. C. Walton, when they tried to assemble to impeach him for his actions in his war on the Ku Klux Klan. D. A. Stovall, a prominent member of the Legislature, was the leading spirit in the Committee of Three which issued the call for the special session. Buck Garrett, picturesque fighting plainsman and former partner of Bud Bellow, famous Oklahoma sheriff and two gun man, who was killed some time ago, is in command of 20 desperate men, who form a personal bodyguard for Governor Walton.

Nearly 300 New Members Added At Tent Revival

The three weeks revival held by the Garrison Carroll evangelist party, conducted here under a big tent, came to a close last night. The meeting resulted in the addition of 238 members to the First Baptist church and possibly fifty others to other local churches of various denominations.

Baptismal services will take place at the First Baptist church tonight. The evangelists will remain over until Tuesday.

Until Sunday services were the great event of the revival, there being a larger attendance than ever and a score or more additions. Fully 2500 assembled last night to hear the last great sermon brought to Mexico by Dr. Garrison. He delivered a powerful appeal centered around the general theme of "Procrastination" which he described as the bed of ease on which many lie down to sleep forever.

Decree Would Prohibit Interference at Elections

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 1.—District Judge Hunt granted an injunction against all National Guard officers and men, prohibiting them from interfering in any way with the special election tomorrow.

Sheriff Sanford said there would be one thousand deputies sworn in before night to prevent the polls being closed by Walton's civilian army.

Twelve of the governor's alleged gunmen are guarding the election supplies and storm clouds are rapidly gathering, authorities said.

Sanford announced that the military authorities had agreed to work under his orders which is understood to mean that the soldiers would prevent any interference with the election.

The military refused to comment.

SAPULPA PREPARES TO VOTE

French Troops Patrol Dusseldorf Following Riot; Situation Alarm

BERLIN, Oct. 1.—French troops are patrolling Dusseldorf following fatal riots in which several persons were killed and wounded in fighting between German police and separatist demonstrators. The dead is estimated at sixteen and wounded between 50 and 100. The French arrested a number of Germans charged with inciting the riots. Machine guns were used to break up the separatist gathering.

Many women and children were trampled. While the fighting was at its height, French troops surrounded the crowd and forced German police to barracks.

The situation is most alarming.

Labor Sounds Its Battle Cry

Walton Removed Two Members Of Election Board But State Secretary Fails To Approved

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 1.—Governor Jack Walton's latest move today to halt the elections called by the Election Board for Tuesday was when he ordered the removal from the election board J. F. Logan and T. M. Kelly, replacing them with two men whom he knew were to be with him in his views and intentions of preventing the polls from being opened.

The members he named to take their place were Ira Mitchell and Claud Baker. They comprise two thirds of the board. The Governor then announced that they had called off the election.

Secretary of State Sneed, however refused to accept the order appointing Baker and Mitchell and the officers of the election board said no meeting had been held. Mr. McAllister, Secretary of the Board was not removed by the Governor. He was elected by the State Senate to that position and the other two members were appointed by the Govern-

The situation is becoming most alarming. Newspapers continue printing extras notifying the public of the latest move, which causes a different status of affairs every few hours.

Signally successful in some of the early moves, the Governor is now face to face with a condition which he declares will provoke bloodshed. He stated Sunday that there may be encroachments as the Esch-Cummins bloodshed but there would be no election.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 1.—A call to "all who have eyes to see" to join the American Federation of Labor in "a great crusade for industrial democracy" was sounded today by the Federation's executive council in submitting its report to labor's annual convention here.

"Henceforth the organization of the workers must mean an enlightened participation in a democracy of industry whose purpose must be the extension of freedom, the enfranchisement of the producer as such, the rescue of industry from chaos, profiteering and purely individual whim, and from the domination of incompetent political bodies," said the council.

"The threat of State invasion of industrial life is real. Such ignorant encroachments as the Esch-Cummins act, the Kansas Court of Industrial Relations and the Colorado Industrial

Commission act, each a blundering gesture of Government acting under the spur of organized propaganda or of political appetite for power, are examples of what industry has to fear. Trade unionism must lead the way for true progress, even at the cost of being branded as reactionary.

"Industry must organize to govern itself, to impose upon itself rules and rules and to bring order into its own house. Industry must bring order to itself constructively, or it will have an order thrust upon it which would be demoralizing, if not fatal. Our people cannot live and thrive under the regime of bureaucracy which threatens unless industry solves its own problems. Industry must find itself. Industry must save itself."

For The Farmer

To the farmers of the country the council suggested that "agriculture, the great life-giving twin of industry, Continued on page 4."

CHAIRMAN DURBIN'S HISTORY OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Mr. W. W. Durbin, Chairman of the Democratic States Executive Committee, of Ohio, has produced a piece of valuable political literature by a pamphlet entitled "A History of the Origin, Principles and Purposes of the Democratic Party."

Among the historical facts he makes clear are the plan of the Constitution of the United States which was adopted was proposed by James Madison, a Democrat, the first lieutenant of Thomas Jefferson, known to his generation as the Father of the Constitution.

That it was basely false that Jefferson was against the Constitution, his original objection to it being remedied by the addition of the Bill of Rights comprised in the first amendment.

That "government of the people, by the people, for the people," began in 1801 under Thomas Jefferson.

That the most recent biographies of Abraham Lincoln—one by Jesse Weik and one by Prof. Stephenson—contain that statement that the only two men Lincoln was ever heard to praise were George Washington and Thomas Jefferson.

Among some of the great constructive acts of the Democratic party he sets forth the following:

- The Bill of Rights in the Constitution.
- The Acquisition of Louisiana, Florida and California.
- The Monroe Doctrine.
- Opening of public lands to settlers.
- Pioneered a fight for an income tax.
- The popular election of Senators.
- The creation of the Federal Reserve System, (the greatest piece of financial legislation in the history of the world).
- Gave the farmers the Rural Credits Act (the most helpful financial legislation ever enacted for agriculture.)
- Gave labor the Magna Charta of its rights.
- Passed the first national act to end child slavery.
- Under a Democratic administration, directed with brilliant success, the greatest war in history and gave the world an international plan for peace.

Mr. Durbin has compressed a great deal of Democratic party history into small space and has done it attractively and convincingly.

Practically all of the great constructive policies of the nation, have emanated from the Democratic Party.

Higgins; the Real Thing, Says Farrell

By HENRY L. FARRELL, United Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Oct. 1—In winning his third straight American League pennant with the New York Yankees, Miller Huggins, the little manager of the team, accomplished something that should rate for him a place among the real managerial leaders of baseball.

Huggins never has been able to get the credit that he deserved for meritorious performances in the past, largely because he did not seek glory or the spotlight, and even now, when any other manager would be acclaimed for taking three pennants in succession, the little Yank boss is still being underrated.

New York never has taken to Huggins and the comment is still being heard that "anyone ought to win a flock of pennants with a million dollar team and that the Yankees won the pennant again this year, not because of their manager, but in spite of him."

Huggins lacks the spectacular color of McGraw, he is not a mixer like Uncle Wilbert Robinson, he is not as picturesque as Kid Gleason and he lacks the outward qualities of leadership that are embodied in Frank Chance. He seldom deserts the darkness of the dugout and he goes about his way quietly and gets results.

The Yankee manager has shown no great ability as a developer of young players since he took the New York club, although he has had a part in making Ward and Muesel. But in his position no other manager would care to saddle himself with the responsibilities and gamble with young players. Developing youngsters is a big problem. Connie Mack has failed at it for seven years, and Mack had a great reputation for bringing along young players.

When Huggins was given the Yanks he was commissioned to get a winner and something to compete against the Giants as an attraction. Had Huggins been the greatest miracle man in the world in developing young players, he could not have gotten together a pennant winning team in the short space of time demanded by his employers.

He found himself in a fortunate position where the owners were willing and able to buy the players that Huggins decided would work well with his combination.

Huggins at least did show some real good judgment in buying players. No other great stars that Huggins let go can be found on other teams like the castoffs of the Giants in the National League. The players that Huggins discarded of never caused him a regret while those he acquired delivered for him better than they were expected to do.

The smartest move made by Huggins was his recommendation for the purchase of Babe Ruth. The great

People with the Sells-Floto circus will tell you that grand opera stars have nerve—at least, the big top trouper's will 'aver that Cyrena Van Gordon, soprano of the Chicago Grand Opera Company, has plenty.

In Chicago, where Sells-Floto, coming to Mexia for parade and exhibit Friday, October 5th, opens its seasons, Syrena taxied from a rehearsal at the Auditorium to the Coliseum, and walked unperturbed into a den of lions, where she serenaded them with her marvelous voice. Talk about "music hath charms to sooth the savage beast!" Miss Gordon proved that in a hurry.

But the soprano was not entirely alone. Chris Zeits, trainer, stood right behind her, steel-pronged fork ready, in case anything might have gone wrong, and behind Chris was an unlocked door. Still, do you think you would care to try it?

The lions, you will note, are magnificent specimens, as are all of the wild creatures in the big Sells-Floto menagerie, but this you will see for yourself, when the largest street parade in the world invades the business district of the city on Sells-Floto circus day.

Of course, it's just like a clown, even a producing clown like Borello, to try to fit a midget pony with a draft horse show. Naturally, Bee Starr, dainty aerial artiste, looking on objects, but clowns have to work things out in their own way, and Borello will reach a solution highly absurd in proper time.

With the Sells-Floto circus, coming to Mexia to parade and exhibit Friday, October 5th, there are over forty clowns, who work with the ponies, donkeys, burros, dogs of low and high degree, geese, roosters and guinea pigs. These funsters have trained their pets to a remarkable proficiency in comedy, and children the country over chortle at their antics.

As for Miss Starr—well, she is one of the two Flying Ward troupes, big casting troupes of mid-air somersaulters, headed by Mayme and Edward Ward. Sells-Floto has this year a large number of foreign acts, but not in the air. The Wards and the two hundred other aerialists with the big show are all Americans, for the land of Uncle Sam leads the world in daring, graceful and magnitudinous acts aloft.

PRUITT GETS TWO YEARS SENTENCE

MEXIA, Sept. 29.—J. C. Pruitt, one of the 44 men indicted on charges of violating the prohibition law following the extensive raid in Somervell county in August faced a two years sentence in the penitentiary here today. Pruitt was found guilty by a jury yesterday afternoon of a charge of illegally manufacturing whiskey.

A second case, involving 12 indictments is pending against Pruitt. Pruitt's case was regarded as a test case for the others to be tried.

Puffed Rice

Airy, flavory morsels—a supreme delight

Quaker Puffed Rice is the finest breakfast dainty people have ever known. The grains are steam exploded—puffed to 8 times normal size. So each grain becomes a confection—a flaky, flavory puff.

The food cells are exploded, so they easily digest. That is the reason for puffing. Thus Puffed Grains are the best-cooked cereals in existence.

Whole grains made enticing

Quaker Puffed Wheat is whole wheat puffed. Over 125 million steam explosions are caused in every kernel. Thus these airy, toasted grains become delicious tidbits.

No night dish is more welcome than Quaker Puffed Wheat in milk. And none is more important.

Whole wheat supplies 12 minerals which growing children must have. It supplies the needed bran. And milk is rich in vitamins.

Every housewife wants her family to eat more whole grains and more milk. Then serve them Puffed Grains morning, noon and night.

In the afternoon, crisp and douse with melted butter for children to eat like peanuts.

Millions of people are better fed since Puffed Grains were invented. Let your folks eat them to their hearts' content.

Coolidge Markets 7,725 Bales This Season To Date

Coolidge has received 7,725 bales of cotton already this season. The Coolidge Herald states that "It appears reasonably certain now that Coolidge will receive 9,000 bales of cotton this season. Figuring the total at an average of 25 cents per pound and the seed at $40 per ton the proceeds would be $1,305,000."

The bank deposits at present are the heaviest in the history of that community. In the two banks there, $710,000 is on deposit.

At Prairie Hill the deposits show $56,076.90.

The Farm Bureau is becoming popular in the Coolidge territory. 400 bales have been shipped this year by the Bureau which is a considerable gain over previous seasons.

must find its way through to orderliness and justice by adoption of substantially the same means we advocate for industry. It is our hope that the farmers will continue their work of organization and that we may have and give assistance in pushing forward the program upon which we believe depends our future national well being and safety.

"We commit ourselves to greater efforts in the organization of all workers. We urge no new formula, no new philosophy; we urge only a great consciousness of purpose and a definite air towards its more rapid accomplishment.

With this prelude, the council proceeded to a report and discussion of the work of the past year, and to make recommendations on several important questions of labor policy. A digest of these follows:

Child Labor.
All local labor bodies were urged to demand Congressional adoption and submission to the States of the proposed amendment to enable anti-child labor laws to be passed.

Supreme Court.
The council repeated its advocacy, in dorse by the 1922 convention, of adoption of a constitutional amendment providing that if the Supreme Court nullifies a law of Congress, it shall remain a law if passed by two-thirds of both houses of Congress.

Attacks on Unionism.
A "propaganda of destructive criticism" has been aimed at the trade union movement, frankly revolutionary and having for its ultimate object not only destruction of trade unionism but the eventual overthrow of the democratic Government of the United States," the council said. The catchword of this propaganda has been "amalgamation." It was stated, referring to those who favor "one big union."

Immigration.
"Congress will be called upon to decide between the greed of unfair employers and the self-preservation of our people," in dealing with the immigration problem, the report said, pointing out "the danger to our institutions if immigration is not restricted to a greater extent than is provided in the present law." The convention was urged to go on record in favor of much stricter limitation, even for complete prohibition of immigration for a time. Americanization program the council said:

"No better time could a campaign to this end be launched than at present, and its success would be made more certain by the complete restriction of immigration."

Unemployment.
The council recommended that the A. F. of L. participate heartily in all efforts being made in a time of prosperity like the present to prepare against an unemployment period. All wage earners were urged to send to headquarters their best thought and suggestion on means of preventing unemployment.

"In addition we have no hesitancy in emphasizing the fact," said the council "that the most potential factor against unemployment is the resistance against wage reductions."

Banking and Credits.
Emphasizing the importance of credit in the industrial life of the nation the council reported adversely on the plan to establish a central labor bank in Washington, D. C., to co-ordinate the activities of labor banks throughout the country. It pointed out that the twenty-three labor banks now in business or about to start are organized on different plans and that it would be impossible to bring them together in a unit. The central bank project is, therefore, "not only impracticable, but undesirable," the council said.

Non-Partisan Political Campaign.
Pointing to the fact that "through the activities of the A. F. of L. Non-Partisan Campaign Committee twenty three candidates for United States Senator who had been loyal to labor and the people were elected, and eleven reactionary Senators defeated, and the 170 House members were elected, either because the A. F. of L. supported them or opposed their rivals," the council advocated that the convention provide more funds for similar activities in the 1924 campaign so that "a most thorough campaign can be inaugurated and carried to a successful conclusion."

Kansas Industrial Court.
"Kansas once again is heading toward freedom," as the result of the Supreme Court's decision 'dismembering' the Industrial Court, the council said. In view of the decision 'the only purpose now being served by the remnants of ex-Governor Allen's law is to provide jobs for his political appointees on this court and to squander the money of the taxpayers of Kansas' Governor Davis was commended for his efforts to abrogate the law entirely.

Open Shop.
The so-called "American plan" or open shop was condemned as an effort to put workers into slavery, and the council declared that "the successful strikes of nearly 2,000,000 wage-earners in the United States are responsible for the prosperity this country is enjoying, since these strikes were ad-justed by collective bargaining."

Ku Klux Klan.
The Klan was condemned on the ground that "it is destructive of that freedom and devotion to the principles of liberty which we regard as the first essentials in democratic civilization. We believe that no trade unionist can consistently participate in the activities of the Ku Klux Klan or any similar organization, and we unhesitatingly denounce its efforts to supplant or dered government, to promote religious intolerance, racial antagonisms and bigotry."

Fascisti Movement.
The effort to organize fascisti groups in the United States was denounced as "a token of hostility to our democratic institutions." Foreign-born workers were urged to "refrain from joining the fascisti or any similar movement."

Railroads and The Courts.
An exhaustive review of the shop-

men's strike and the Wilkerson injunc-tion was made. The council declared the injunction "marked a new advance of the courts of equity in their usurpation of power to control industrial con-troversies," which may provide "a ty-rannical precedent in other cases."

The Railroad Labor Board and the Esch-Cummins act were roundly con-demned and their abrogation urged.

Minimum Wage Law.
Nullification of the District of Col-umbia minimum wage law for women should stimulate the organization of women, not alone for their own pro-tection, but also for protection of men wage earners the council said.

Congress.
In a comprehensive review of the work of the Sixty-seventh Congress

the council declared it "will find an unenviable place in history. Reaction and incompetence, backed apparently by no other thought than personal and partisan political advantage, made it impotent to remedy any of the evils troubling the people of our country.

One of the greatest dangers to the country, the report said, is legislation

by "lame ducks," or defeated members of Congress.

Civilian Aviator Is Forced Down Machine Trouble

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 29.—Parker D. Cramer, civilian aviator, who hopped off here yesterday at dawn in an attempt to make a non-stop flight to Clarion, Pa., was forced down at Hickman, Ky., by a broken water connection, according to word received here today.

Parker had completed approximately half of his scheduled 1225 mile flight when he was forced to descend. It was his fourth attempt at the flight. The first three times he was forced down before he left Houston.

5th, shows his pals and the world, for that matter, a thing or two about going up in the air. Still, all is not quite Vanity, for Veronica is not at all hard to look at, even if the horse showing off to advantage.

For many years Sells-Floto has been famous for its handsome equines, and this year it has set out to eclipse the reputation established in the past by importing the show horses of Europe. Hunters from England vie with high jumpers from Italy, and Hungarian and Rumanian steeds try to humble the best that have been culled from horse show centers in North America.

When the world's largest street parade goes by on circus day month, look over the hundreds of horses. It will be worth your while.

Texas Realtors Meeting Today In Houston

HOUSTON, Texas, Oct. 1.—Realtors of Texas gathered in Houston today for the annual meeting of the Texas Association of Real Estate Boards which will end October 5.

Today's program included for the most part registration of delegates and an informal reception for the visitors. Chairman of various committees also will meet today.

The real work of the convention will begin tomorrow with an address by President Wallace Rogers of San Antonio. Reports of state officers, conferences of board secretaries and other business matters will be taken up.

Discussion of the proposed law to license all real estate agents as is being done in numerous other states is the most important question before the realtors. It is in general favor among the delegates who believe it will do away with many fake land firms.

EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 1.—Members of the Aetna club, an organization of 75 negroes, don't have any password or mysterious knocks by which to gain entrance to their club rooms. But Albert Holly, doorkeeper has a memory for faces that has all other methods of passports beaten easily.

Holly leans out of the second story window of the club when someone knocks at the door. He can instantly recognize a member and lowers the single key to the door by means of a string. When the member unlocks the door, Holly holds the key and waits for the next.

damage was done. Kosko claimed the jail fire was accidental and he was released when effort to connect him with recent disastrous fires in the county failed.

WOUND AROUND SHAFT BUT ESCAPED DEATH

DENTON, Texas, Oct. 1.—Whirled dizzily around the swiftly revolving shaft of the machinery in a local gin plant, Morris Ford miraculously escaped instant death. Ford's right arm became wrapped around the shaft while replacing a drive belt. A worker ran the length of the plant and turned the power off. It was impossible to turn the machinery back and Ford's body had to be turned round and round the shaft, until released. He suffered numerous broken bones and bruises.

Regular meeting of the Eastern Star tonight, and all officers and members are urged to be present promptly on time.—W. M.

You Cannot Deny The Quality of our— Candy

—The firm name speaks for itself, and even then if you were at all skeptical a test by taste would prove to you undeniably that the quality we claim really existed, and then some. Candy couldn't possibly be nicer, and it never will be nicer than these fine confections by the famous houses of King and Whitman. All size boxes, some plain, some fancy for gift purposes.

THIS IS A STUDEBAKER YEAR

Through A Woman's Eyes

By SADIE KIRGAN.

I spent one summer on a ranch in New Mexico. At the back of the ranch house was an enormous canyon, possessing a picturesqueness of beauty that fascinated me from the first day that I stood on the dizzy brink. The magnificent rise of the walls, the scarlet flowers in the rocky ledges, the soft purple haze, the few lone pines that kept vigil from above, and the little river that lay over the rocks, blinded me at first, to all but the loveliness of the scene. Then one day I found danger and fear. I learned that a chance glimpse of my horse's foot as we came down the steep trail could mean death, swift and terrible. I saw a rattler rise in my path. I learned the treachery of the swimming pool that the river formed as it went over the falls.

So it has always been with nature. A palace of ice on a sweep of sea and the Titanic lost; a flowering vine, and in its touch, poison; a strange play beneath the waters, and the cherry blossom beauty of Japan in ruins.

Perhaps it is nature's guard, her surest protection for man and his ambition, her way of holding him to ideals and values. Or perhaps, again, as the famous old poem has expressed it:

"Some of us call it nature.
But others call it God."

DR. JACKSON HEADS RECORD-MAKING POWELL 500 COMPANY

In reporting the record dividend payment of the Powell 500 Company Sunday, The News stated that Jesse McLendon was President of the Company. This was an error. Dr. R. B. Jackson, well known physician, Limestone County pioneer, the original baseball fan, and successful oil man, is head of the company. Other dividend payments are expected to be paid in the future and The News promises not to make the same error again, if that is any inducement to further dividend declaration and disbursement.

WHEN I GO HOME

By SADI KIRGAN.

A little while—and I shall go back home,
Back to the little place
I call my own,
The roses then, will be in bloom,
Pale faces in the twilight gloom,
The air all rich with sweet perfume,
When I go home.

A mother will be waiting there,
When I go home.
The moonlight playing on her hair,
When I go home.
A child will cry in merry glee,
"We're glad you're come, because you see
This is the loneliest place to be,
When you are gone."

And father dear will smile and say,
When I go home.
"Well, have you had enough of play?"
When I go home.
"And did you want to see us too,
As we were waiting to see you,
And are you gay, or sad, or blue?"
When I go home.

And I shall simply wait and smile,
When I go home.
And look around the place awhile,
The sweetpeas that have grown quite tall,
The whispering winds when twilight falls,
The whippoorwill's low plaintive call,
When I go home.

O, Little House, awaiting there,
When I go home.
O, Little Nest, with treasures rare,
When I go home.
Though through the world I've traveled wide,
Where wealth and kings and fame abide,
I love you best of all besides,
When I go home.

Paris Style Hints

NECK-LINES

PARIS, Oct. 1.—If there is still some doubt as to the proper position of the waist-line, Paris designers seem to have at least made it clear about the neck-line of the season.

The old bateau-shaped neck opening that has been enjoying such popularity has about disappeared. Only now and then does one spy it in the new collections, and then usually in linen or organdie. The "V" neck seems to be the chosen one. Some of the houses give it definite outlines, others drape it.

Round openings are also very much used, together with small square ones with a rounded back. Lenief is one who favors the round neck cut just at the collar-bone, a style which is becoming to many women, and especially to the ill-favored ones with too little flesh covering at this particular point.

On his velvet frocks he puts a narrow border of embroidery or fur and continues it down the side in Russian blouse manner.

The Persian neck is a specialty of one of the smaller houses and is one of the prettiest to be seen. It is round, cut off to a slant on the side, giving a most becoming and youthful finish. Yvonne Davidson uses it on a charming silver-gray silk tunic gown. The neck is bordered with the same fine gold thread embroidery which trims the gown and is finished off with a narrow triple colored tie in green, gray and silver.

Many of Chanel's little crone de chine frocks have narrow bands attached to the bodice and standing up across the back of the neck and then brought around and tied loosely in front where the bodice is low. Often the order is reversed and the band ties in the back.

Evening gowns are cut low in the back and high in the front. Many, in fact, have no backs at all, with the material coming straight up to the neck in front.

PEAS WITH BUTTER A LA FRANCAISE.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—You have just time enough, perhaps to have a last feast of fresh green peas before the season ends. Try cooking them with butter a la francaise.

Clean the peas and cook in a casserole with a quarter of a pound of butter for each quart of peas. Stir from time to time with a wooden spoon. Add a little bouquet of parsley, the heart of a young lettuce and eight or ten little onions. Let cook for one hour or less, if the peas are very young. It is wise to cover them with a shallow dish filled with water to keep the peas from drying out. Add a bit of sugar before taking from the fire. Serve hot.

HORSE UPSIDE DOWN IN DITCH FOR TWO DAYS

By International News Service
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 1.—After spending two days in a five-foot ditch, with all four feet stuck up in the air like an old-fashioned four-post bed, "Jim," a flea-bitten bay horse, is today back at the home of his owner.
The animal was snaked out of the ditch with an automobile wrecker. "Jim's" owner Joe Robinson, a negro, says "Jim" is as much a member of his family as one of the pickaninnies and declares he had searched the city over for the horse before he was found in a sewer ditch in an alley.

UNJUST RESULTS OF MONEY PLANS

Unsound Currency Gives Sellers Unfair Advantage Over the Producers.

EXPERT EXPLAINS MONEY

Points Out Dangers in So-Called Energy Dollars—Other Plans Exposed.

How demagogues are using false doctrines of so-called "sound money" to give themselves or the class they represent unfair advantages at the expense of real producers is exposed in the Journal of the American Bankers Association by H. Parker Willis, expert on the money question.
"There is no subject in whose name more crimes against truth have been committed than that of 'sound currency,'" Mr. Willis says. "The term is always resorted to by demagogues. At the present moment there seems to be a danger that it will be used by a potential presidential candidate as representing the 'platform' upon which he expects to run. There is no question that more nearly and directly touches the immediate welfare of every class in the community."

Purpose of Money
Primary functions of money and currency, it is explained, are to serve as a means of exchanging goods and as a means of measuring the value of goods. Mr. Willis continues:
"Demagogues and those who are disposed to mislead the public for various ulterior reasons have succeeded in disseminating an entirely different view of the purpose of money. Some of them contend that the soundest, or best currency is that which is so arranged as to bring about a 'fair' redistribution of wealth. They want a constantly depreciating currency—one which keeps playing into the hands of the seller of goods, by enabling him to count confidently upon higher prices in terms of money so that he pays the producer from whom he has obtained them less and less. IT IS A STRANGE THING THAT THIS KIND OF CURRENCY IS OFTEN HIGHLY PRAISED OR FAVORED BY THE PRODUCER HIMSELF. NOTWITHSTANDING THAT HE IS THE GREATEST SUFFERER FROM IT."

Energy Currency
There is another popular view of sound currency which aims to base it upon "natural products" or "natural forces"—usually it is true, specifying products or forces which have been monopolized or can be controlled by the advocate of such currency. Thus from time to time there have been schemes to issue a currency based upon or protected by farm products stored in warehouses, or occasionally representing "units of energy" or horse power.

The rulers of Soviet Russia at one time attempted to introduce a currency representing "labor time," each man receiving a check representing the number of hours of time he had put in at work, while goods themselves were to be valued in terms of hours of production time. Thus one man who put in an hour's time in street cleaning received the same control over goods as he who put in an hour's time at surgery. The theory was that this kind of "sound" currency enabled the "poor man" to get a larger supply of goods.

"The trouble was that when those who could perform a certain kind of labor were not paid in proportion to their effort they stopped making goods. So it was not very long in Russia before the sound currency which was issued in favor of the poor man had brought it about that the poor man could not buy anything with the currency. This was an unfortunate kind of 'soundness.' We do not want something like it in the United States today, yet very similar proposals are now being made in a good many quarters that ought to know better," says Mr. Willis.

FACTS ABOUT CHECKS

A bank check is a written order on a bank by one of its depositors to pay a specified sum to another party. This instrument must be dated, the amount written in full in the body, and signed the same as the depositor's signature appears on the bank's signature card and ledger sheet.
A check is payable on demand, provided it is not dated ahead. If dated ahead it becomes a promise to pay, the same as a note or acceptance, payable on some future date. United States revenue stamps are required on a check dated ahead, at the rate of 2 cents per hundred dollars, or fraction thereof.

In case a check carries two different dates, that is $2.00 in the figures and "Two Hundred Dollars" in the written part of the body of the check, the latter, or part in writing, always controls.
A check made out to a person "or order," requires identification, and the party presenting the same must assure the bank that he is the payee. A check to a person "or bearer" is payable to the one presenting it at the bank, but a certain amount of identification is necessary, for the bank reserves the right to know that he is entitled to receive the funds.

Men Beaten Up By U. S. Navy "Gobs" To Cruise Around Key West-Havana

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 29.
Two men, Charles Holden, 23, and Joseph Bellever, employed by the dock board, are in a local hospital badly injured today as the result of beatings received while enroute home from work late yesterday. One man, who police say is a striking longshoreman, was arrested shortly after the fight. Several others who participated in the disturbance made their escape.
Business interests here today are seeking to bring about a settlement of the strike of longshoremen which has badly crippled river traffic for the last two weeks.

CHINESE GOVERNMENT REFORESTS BIG AREAS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—While America is using more lumber annually than it is producing and ignoring the pressing need of reforestation, the Chinese have recognized the value of reforesting and are applying the principle, according to advice received by the Department of Commerce.

The Shansi Government has inaugurated a Bureau of Forestry with six branches and tree planting on Government land is going ahead steadily. In addition private land owners are also planting trees on all available land.

It is estimated, the report states, over 100,000,000 trees are being planted annually. The Shansi Government hopes to reforest some 30,000,000 acres of land.

SPECIAL PROSECUTOR NAMED TO CONDUCT INVESTIGATION OF GOV. McCRAV'S AFFAIRS

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 1.—Charles W. Moore, United States Commissioner, has appointed a special prosecutor to conduct the grand jury investigation of the financial affairs of Governor McCray, to start Friday. The republican state committee is to go into every detail of alleged irregularities in the governor's handling of the Marion National Bank, to determine the party's attitude toward the governor. Skopemen said they would see that the governor gets a square deal.

TO RESCUE BODIES PROSTRATE NOW IN QUICKSAND OF RIVER

CASPER, Wyo., Oct. 1.—Workers expect to raise the smoker of wrecked train No. 30, of the Burlington, from the quicksand of the creek and extricate the remaining bodies. Only four have been recovered.

of persons to bear arms. The first state commissions were attested by the Secretary of State and a copy of the commission kept in the files of the Secretary's office. After several thousands had been issued, however, the acknowledgment of the Secretary of State was left off the commissions and his seal was supplanted by the notary's seal of the Governor's private secretary. No salary was attached to the commissions.

Followers of the situation expressed the opinion that the organization of the State police force was of such a loose nature that the Governor could not command the services of a large number such as he declared he would have on duty Tuesday.

Likewise, the announcement that 75,000 volunteer guards would be called out, created a stir in the ranks of those who have kept in close touch with the situation.

As far as is known the best drilling record in the Powell area of the Greater Mexico oil district was made recently by Campbell and Southern, drilling contractors. They drilled the Humphreys McKie 52 to a depth of 2887 feet in exactly 5 1/2 working days. Every 24 hours 525 feet of hole was made. A rotary was used. F. B. Woods was the day driller and C. A. Lindsey was night driller.

PLANE FIRES TORPEDO WEIGHING 1500 POUNDS. International News Service. L. O. N., Oct. 1.—A new seaplane capable of firing a torpedo weighing three-quarters of a ton at an excessive speed has recently been put through tests on the Humber river. The machine is able to travel to its objective at 119 miles an hour and maintain a speed in the air of 100 miles an hour. A new device on the elevators enables the seaplane to swoop down almost on the water to deliver its torpedo, while its great speed makes it a difficult target for anti-aircraft guns.

TUESDAY'S ELECTION

DECLARED LEGAL. OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 1.—Attorney General George F. Short, declared today that a special State Election to be held Tuesday, at which a measure would be voted on to permit the legislature to consider impeachment charges against Gov. J. C. Walton is valid, and that "every qualified voter should quietly and peaceably go to the polls and cast his vote as his conscience may dictate."

Representative W. D. McBea, a leader in the recent legislative move to convene and launch an impeachment investigation against the Governor, said:

"The election must be held and I have sent telegrams to members of the House and Senate and other persons to disregard Gov. Walton's tactics of obstruction and go to the polls and vote Tuesday, notwithstanding any statement or proclamation the chief executive may issue."

State Police an Innovation. Followers of Gov. Walton's administration were surprised at the strength he claimed for his State police. The Governor's police constitute an innovation in the law-enforcement machinery of the State. The police represent an enlargement of a plan which he was Mayor of Oklahoma City immediately before becoming chief executive. At that time he issued hundreds of "courtesy police cards" which extended to holders certain prerogatives not held by citizens in general. While they did not constitute an actual police commission, political opponents of the executive waged a constant attack on the "courtesy cards" alleging that many persons were using them as authority for hearing arms and that the holder had been subsidized for political purposes.

Upon becoming Governor, Mr. Walton began the issuance of "special State police commissions." These commissions were given freely. Opponents of the Governor declare he was building up a political army as well as extending authority to thousands

WORLD WAR VETERANS TO ASK LEGISLATION AT LEGION MEETING

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 1.—The American Legion at its national convention, in San Francisco Oct. 15 to 19, will take a stand on numerous questions of international and national policy, as well as problems relating purely to affairs of the veterans, according to reports received at national headquarters here. Resolutions adopted at the various State conventions during the last few months and which will in turn be presented at the national gathering embrace many problems of national concern.

E. F. Hearn of Corsicana was in the city Sunday.

"Fuss and feathers" is a phrase that hits off the evolution of the circus nowadays, especially Sells-Floto circus and Buffalo Bill's Wild West combined, coming to Mexia Friday, Oct. 5th, for the finest of raiment, the costliest of decorative designs in habiliments and trappings are the rule. In the great opening spectacle of the performances, "A Night in Persia," employing 1200 beautifully garbed people and animals, rich fabrics, gems, fine feathers and silks predominate. In the pictures, one sees much of this, for La Belle Victoria, dainty and dashing equestrienne, and Liane, the prima donna on the elephant, wear ostrich and bird of paradise plumes. Even Katie the monkey, in the arms of Etta Hodgini, principal rider, is dressed in crisp bonnet and lace frock.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon B. Gresham of the Petroleum Supply Co., are spending this week in Corsicana in the interest of his business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Wells of Houston spent the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. C. F. Holleran.
